

Art from the Parks

Modeled on the popular North Lights Splash series, this breathtaking guide features award-winning work from the Arts for the Parks Annual Exhibition, 1989 through 1998. More than 120 landscape compositions by 73 outstanding artists present a diversity of spectacular subjects, from the snow-custed peaks of the Rockies to the vast expanses of the Grand Canyon. Each painting is showcased in big, beautiful page layouts, complete with commentary from the artists on their techniques, mediums and inspirations. More than a coffee-table book, this guide is sure to spark the wonder and creativity of anyone who paints, collects or respects nature.

From the beginning, art was as important to the parks as the parks were programs throughout the national park system and by numberless painters, writers Art has been part of the history of national parks since the 1870s when Hudson River School painters captured majestic Western landscapes. With more than 800 public monuments in our permanent collection, and dozens of works of outdoor temporary works of public art exhibited every year, our parks Through collaborations with a diverse group of arts organizations and artists, Parks bringsto the public both experimental and traditional art in many park The program mission of Arts in the Parks is provide programs to connect our visitors with creative experiences in the park that are transformative, unexpected, Through collaborations with a diverse group of arts organizations and artists, Parks bringsto the public both experimental and traditional art in many park Childrens Art Collection. National parks offer exciting opportunities for children to learn about the nature, history and cultural traditions of our This year, NYC Parks is celebrating the 50th anniversary of its Art in the Parks program. Since its creation in 1967, Art in the Parks has featured over 2,000 works Calling artists, one and all! Ozark National Scenic Riverways will host an Art in the Park evening at Alley Spring on Saturday, June 23, from 4:00 7:00 p.m.. Similarly, the scenery within the national parks in southeast Utah inspired the creation of the Community Artist in the Parks program. Announced September 2016, the Art in the Parks: UNIQLO Park Expressions Grant builds on NYC Parks equity initiatives by bringing public art exhibits to parks Arts in the Parks brings free, family-friendly arts events and activities to a Toronto park near you. Think theatre, dance, workshops, movies & more! The Arts for the Parks competition was a 20 year long show created by the National Park Academy of the Arts and private supporters to benefit the National Park Play the Parks is back for its 6th season! Spend the afternoon picking up some treats at the farmers market set to the sounds of acoustic performances by a crop Through collaborations with a diverse group of arts organizations and artists, Parks bringsto the public both experimental and traditional art in many park In partnership with Art Design Chicago and the Terra Foundation for American Art, the Chicago Parks Foundation is honored to present a special eight-part bus Arts in the Parks brings free arts events to parks across Toronto in the summer. In 2017 To learn more about Arts in the Parks, upcoming events and activities,