

Cameron (The Daughters of Alastair MacDougall) (Volume 1)

Determined to band Scots together against English tyranny, Laird Robert Graham seals a truce with his feuding neighbor, the MacDougalls. But after his brother is nearly killed in a treacherous attack, Graham kidnaps the lairds daughter in an act of revenge. Cameron MacDougall has devoted her life to the healing arts. She's long rebelled against her fathers feuding ways, but when Robert Graham abducts her, she finds herself at the center of the dispute between their families. She expects the anger she feels, not the simmering attraction to the powerful warrior, or the love she develops for his clan. Can she stop further violence between the clans with her escape? Or will she find her surrender leads to a lasting peace and her own hearts desire?
